

"Wikis as Digital Chalkboards: Using wikis for instruction in your classroom" Rubric

Components of the Wiki	1	2	3
Topic	Topic of the wiki is unclear	Topic of the wiki is not clear but can be gained through observation of the pictures, videos, text, and links to resources	The topic of the wiki is very clear.
Pictures/Images	Pictures/images are irrelevant to the wiki topic	Pictures/images are somewhat relevant to the wiki topic	Pictures/images are relevant to the wiki topic
	There is only one pictures/images about the wiki topic	There are 2-4 pictures/images about the wiki topic	There are at least 5 pictures/images about the wiki topic
Videos	Videos are irrelevant to the wiki topic	Videos are somewhat relevant to the wiki topic	Videos are relevant to the wiki topic
	There is only one video about the wiki topic	There are 2-4 videos about the wiki topic	There are at least 5 videos about the wiki topic
Text	Text is irrelevant to the wiki topic	Text is somewhat relevant to the wiki topic	Text is relevant to the wiki topic
Links to Resources	Resources are irrelevant to the wiki topic	Resources are somewhat relevant to the wiki topic	Resources are relevant to the wiki topic
	There is only one link to a resource about the wiki topic	There are 2-4 links to resources about the wiki topic	There are at least 5 links to resources about the wiki topic